7. Brief description about the event :

In education, student engagement refers to the degree of attention, curiosity, interest, optimism, and passion that students show when they are learning or being taught, which extends to the level of motivation they have to learn and progress in their education. In the present generation students should be taught with many innovative methods for which a teacher should be always a learner. Sai kumar sir has ignited the minds of faculty with his teaching strategies.
