Event Name: Eradication of Child Marriage

Agency Name: NSS Cell of SIEI

The NSS Cell of SIEI conducted an awareness programme on "Eradication of Child Marriage" at Thallapallyguda, the adopted village of SIEI on 15th October 2018. Child marriages still continue to be an accepted practice in India. There are some regions in India where the development is not there as par with the advancement in technology.

In general a Child marriage is the marriage of a child with or without their permission, under the age of 18. In most cases, the boy or man is older than the girl. Child marriages put the girl's health in risk.

In view of this Our NSS cell of SIEI arranged an awareness programme which educated the citizens of Thallapallyguda including the parents and the children. The Team of NSS clearly mentioned the consequences of Child marriage and also advised not to encourage as such activities.
